SIX YEAR OLD BOY

COMES WITH SAD NEWS.

Paul Trotter Arrives from Gardner, Mass., to Tell His Father of Mother's Death.

On the boat train reaching here from Worcester on Sunday evening was a boy, Paul Trotter, who had come from Gardner, Mass., to tell his father, he said, that his mother had died on Saturday. He told the trainmen and passengers that his father's name was Pierre and that he worked as a butcher in Norwich. He said that there were four other children in the family and there was no one else to come and tell his father so that he had had to make the trip.

Warren R. Burrows, prosecuting attorney of the town of Groton, who is a well known and popular member of the legal fraternity of New London county, and Miss Emily A. Copp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Belmont A. Copp of Groton, were married at 6.30 at the residence of the bride's parents.
 The ceremony was performed by Rev.
 Henry W. Abbott of the Groton Congregational church in the presence of the immediate families only.

The bride was attired in a gown of white lace, with a veil, and was worn by her grandmother at her wedding. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The ceremony was marked by simplicity and there were no attendants. The fact of the approaching marriage had been kept almost a secret but on Saturday it became known outside the family circles.
 Both bride and groom have a host of friends who will wish them every happiness in their married life.

 of white lace, with a veil, and was
 worn by her grandmother at her wedding. She carried a bouquet of lilies
 no attendants. The fact of the ap-
 came known outside the family circles.
 Both bride and groom have a host of
 piness in their married life.

 well known and popular member of
 county, and Miss Emily A. Copp, daugh-
 the residence of the bride's parents.
 The ceremony was performed by Rev.
 Henry W. Abbott of the Groton Con-
 of the immediate families only.
